

Comment: The user can say a phrase and have the system respond to it

Teach concept: The user can teach definitions of words and concepts to the system

Teach Association: The user can teach associations of words to the system so it can relate words to each other

End Conversation: The user can end the conversation by saying 'goodbye' or an equivalent

Store Information: The user can manually or indirectly store information for the system to use

Recall Information: The system can recall its stored information for use in conversations

AI Response: The system can respond to various user input based on recalled information